COME AND SING HAYDN'S NELSON MASS

We are looking forward to welcoming you to the 2025 Come and Sing at Southwell Minster on Saturday 15 February, an opportunity to rehearse and perform Haydn's famous Missa in angustiis, often referred to as the Nelson Mass, composed in 1798.

Arrival and Registration

Registration begins from 9.30am; there is a 9am service of Holy Communion, so we kindly ask you to arrive quietly as this finishes. Please allow plenty of time for parking and registration, in order that we can start promptly at 10am.

Car Parking

Car parks are located on Church Street opposite the Minster, King Street around the one-way system, Bishop's Drive (off Westgate – free long stay) or there is on-street parking on Church Street or Bishop's Drive. Please note that the car parks on Church Street and King Street are free only for up to one hour and Pay & Display thereafter. You are required to display a ticket, even in a free period.

Scores

Scores will be available to collect on the day for those who have requested them. We will be using the Schott edition of the vocal score.

Rehearsal and Informal Performance

The workshop will start at 10am, with a mid-morning break, and a pre-performance break at 12.30pm. There will be tea and coffee available during the breaks. The informal performance will start at 1pm, and we hope you will encourage family and friends to attend the performance!

Performers may wear whatever they wish for the workshops and performance, though are encouraged to wrap up warm!
